Landmark Sotheby's International Realty to open new Southport Office Location.

SOUTHPORT, NC – Landmark Sotheby's International Realty has announced that the firm will be opening a new office location at 701-3 North Howe Street in Southport, NC. The real estate firm specializes in representing the sale of luxury, waterfront and lifestyle properties throughout coastal North Carolina.

“We see tremendous potential for the Sotheby's International Realty brand in Brunswick County,” remarked Eloni Temple, the firm's Operations Manager. “We believe that properties in Southport, Bald Head Island, St. James Plantation, Caswell Beach and the surrounding communities are worthy of the global exposure that Sotheby's International Realty offers.

Currently, Landmark Sotheby's International Realty operates office locations in Wilmington and on Topsail Island. The Southport office will represent the firm's 3rd regional location. “I am very excited about the new Southport office,” remarked the firm's owner Nick Phillips. “This location on Howe Street in Southport will be very much like an art gallery. Our office will display beautiful paintings by acclaimed local artists, and this will offer a very unique conduit for the public to connect with the Sotheby's International Realty brand.”

Sotheby's International Realty agents are a part of a global real estate network of over 17,000 brokers operating from 760 offices in 60 countries and territories around the globe. Landmark Sotheby's International Realty brokers also enjoy an exclusive relationship with the legendary Sotheby's Auction House. This connection provides unique benefits to agents and clients alike, offering targeted exposure to a coveted and influential audience of real estate buyers from around the world.
